

Youth Educational Services (Y.E.S.) Special Education Advisory Council

Youth Educational Services Special Education Advisory Council (SEAC):

- Advise the special education department on behalf of students receiving special education services.
- Provide opportunities for parents, staff, students, and community to share information and resources.
- Serve as an advocate for high-quality special education programs.

Members of the Y.E.S. SEAC are volunteers to serve as representatives to Y.E.S. regarding special education programming. The council consists of a minimum of five individuals with at least three being parents of students. One member will be the parent of a parentally placed private school student with disabilities or an employee of a nonpublic school if no parent of a nonpublic school student with a disability is enrolled at Y.E.S..
